Members of Team Delta Max

Since its inception in 2006, Team Delta Max students have earnestly sought proactive solutions to curb underage drinking in the Upper Arlington community. The students of Team Delta Max have adamantly and passionately worked to build awareness, create dialogue and change and unite the community to combat underage drinking. The group of 40 to 50 teenagers is committed to taking a vital role in making change happen in our community. Their dedication and hard work creating and implementing initiatives in the light of social pressure is commendable. In 2008, Team Delta Max held four Max Events, organized entirely by the students. Max events offer students the opportunity to dance to popular and trendy music, play in ping-pong and corn hole tournaments, watch movies and compete in Guitar Hero. Team Delta Max used the month of April to implement its first ever community-wide campaign to combat underage drinking in Upper Arlington. The group created a series of events designed to build awareness, create dialogue and change and unite the community in ways that hope to proactively prevent underage drinking.
